

Name: _____

Blood borne Pathogens Test

___ Diseases can be contracted by exposure to blood, semen, vaginal secretions, spinal fluid, amniotic fluid and body tissue.

- True
- False

___ Which of these diseases can be caused by Blood borne pathogens?

- A. Hepatitis, HIV and AIDS
- B. Hepatitis and the flu
- C. HIV and cold
- D. All of the above

___ Routes of entry by which blood borne pathogens enter our bodies are ingestion, inhalation, and absorption.

- True
- False

___ Which of the following can cause you to ingest blood borne pathogens?

- A. Eat or swallow
- B. Washing your hands with soap and water
- C. Wearing latex gloves
- D. All of the above

___ If you come in contact with air borne pathogens you should do the following:

- A. Leave the room
- B. Continue to work
- C. Wear safety respirator
- D. All of the above

___ The most likely route of entry for contamination to enter our bodies is absorption.

- True
- False

___ What are the correct barrier devices to use to prevent exposure?

- A. Latex gloves
- B. Face mask
- C. Safety goggle or shield
- D. All of the above

Turn Over page 2

_____ All needles should be placed in a biohazard container.

True

False

_____ Which of the following is correct when decontaminating equipment (example: face shield or goggles)?

A. Wash in hot water

B. Wash with soap and water

C. Wash with 10% bleach/water solution

D. All of the above

_____ What do you do after an exposure to blood borne pathogens?

A. On the skin wash with warm water & antibacterial soap

B. On the eyes wash with water for 15 minutes

C. Report all exposures right away

D. All of the above

_____ Should you always think about safety?

True

False

