

Name: _____

Hand washing: Get the Picture

___ You can always tell which of your patients has an infectious disease. ?

- True
- False

___ Which type of bacteria is present on your hands at all times?

- A. Resident Flora
- B. Transient Flora
- C. Respiratory Flora
- D. None of the above

___ What percentage of flora can reside in the skin's deeper epidermal layers?

- A. 80%
- B. 50-60%
- C. 25%
- D. 10-20%

___ In what kind of conditions do microorganisms easily survives in?

- E. Moist Environments
- F. In and around Jewelry
- G. Both E and F
- H. None of the Above

___ What is the order of actions for proper hand washing?

- A. Wet hands with warm water, add soap and lather, wash front and back of hands for 10-15 seconds, then rinse well
- B. Add Soap and rub on hands, wet hands with water, continue lathering soap and scrubbing hands, rinse
- C. Scrub hands under running water, add soap and lather, rinse well
- D. Wet hands with cold water, add soap and lather, wash for 10-15 seconds, rinse

___ How Should you turn off the faucet once you have finished washing your hands?

- A. With your bare hands while they are still wet
- B. With your bare hands once they have been dried
- C. With the towel that you used to dry your hands
- D. With another paper towel after you have dried your hands

Turn Over page 2

_____ In what areas should anti-microbial soap be used?

- A. ICU
- B. NICU an Labor and Delivery
- C. Surgical areas and post-op
- D. All of the above

_____ If you work in indirect patient care, such as laundry or maintenance, it is ok to wash your hands with non-medicated soap?

- A. True
- B. False

_____ When should hands be washed?

- A. Anytime you come in contact with any type of body fluid
- B. After using the restroom
- C. After finishing lab work, even if you wore gloves
- D. All of the above

_____ In an emergency situation, it is ok to use alcohol-based foams or other types of cleansers as an alternative.

- A. True
- B. False